STUDIO

FEMINISMS + ART + TECHNOLOGY + SOCIETY

HTMLES FESTIVAL | EDITION 13 Beyond the # — Failures and Becomings

Studio XX is thrilled to launch the 13th edition of HTMLes, a biennial festival of media arts and digital culture, taking place from November 1st to 5th in a dozen locations across Montreal.

#MeToo #MoiAussi #Uvangu #YoTambien #QuellaVoltaChe #منا كمان shook the foundation of oppressive systems. What's next?

The 13th edition of the HTMLes festival is an artistic response to the recent waves of online declarations. Beyond the # — Failures and Becomings looks at the role of digital technologies in this new space of expression, the reclaiming of voice, as well as obstacles and ways to successfully move forward. Artists, activists, and theorists redefine the foundations of success and failure and imagine new, emancipatory perspectives. The festival brings together exhibitions, discussions, a video screening, workshops, and performances.

HTMLes is the only feminist media arts festival in Canada. Initiated in 1997 by the artist-run centre Studio XX, HTMLes is a key event for communities of artists, activists, and scholars interested in media arts and digital culture exploring multiple feminist perspectives. This edition is possible thanks to the collaboration of 9 local partners, the participation of 2 international festivals, and features the work of 24 artists, both local and international.
