Studio XX' team is very pleased to welcome its new programming coordinator, Natacha Clitandre! Natacha is an artist in mediatic arts. She has been involved with the Studio XX for a long time, first as an administrator, then as an artist, and then as President of the Board. Her work centres on the ubiquitous nature of technology in everyday life. As she investigates the link between artist and viewer, Natacha uses mobile devices with video and photographic capacities, along with printed media, to infiltrate and comment on the public sphere.

We also take this opportunity to warmly thank Erandy Vergara for her excellent work as the Studio XX' programming coordinator over the last two year (2015-2017). We wish her the best as the new artistic director of Eastern Bloc!
