PARTY 3D !

PARTY 3D !
 End of the year party + Artist presentations
 Thursday December 10th, 2015, 6PM
 @ STUDIO XX - 4001, Berri (corner Duluth) #201
 Suggested donation: 2$, FREE for members
 Refreshments will be served

Studio XX is starting another chapter of artistic experimentation involving our brand new 3D Printer!
 Come meet, and test out, our Tinkerine Ditto 3D printer (available to our members from Tuesday to Friday 10h-17h, and Wednesdays 10h-21h).

Join us for an evening featuring two artists who use creative approaches to 3D Printing.

The event will feature performances by media artist Pascale Malalere, who works with eco-feminist methods, and Jessica Blanchet, a fiber artist designing interactive suits for video games that will function as the game's interface and controllers.

The evening will be moderated by Raphaël Demers of Fab.Lab du PEG and our year end party will cap off the evening. Come celebrate with us, bring your playlist!

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS "ELECTRONIC ARTS FOR FAMILIES"

Inspired by the "Coding goûters," the Electronic Arts for families project brings together children and their parents to have fun programming and designing electronic with artists. The activity is free (you must register), but the event is a snack pot-luck so please bring something to share. All projects will be presented at Studio XX in March 2016.

FREE! | Registration required: webmestre @ studioxx.org

ELECTRONIC ARTS FOR FAMILIES
 Bioart with Sarah Choukah
 Sunday December 13, 2pm-4pm | FREE!

This activity will enable participants to control the movement of a group of parameciums (single-cell organisms that live in wetlands and aquatic environments) using a microcontroller. The parameciums "performance" will be transformed by a microscope and projected using a webcam.

ELECTRONIC ARTS FOR FAMILIES
 3d printing with Simon Greffard
 Sunday December 13, 2pm-4pm | FREE!

Participants will learn how to design the modular elements of a collaborative work using different tools: scans of drawings, modeling with 3D software (SketchUp, Tinkercad) or programming. The parts designed by each participant will be printed to create a collaborative sculpture/composition which will be shown as part of an exhibition of all workshop projects in March 2016.

ELECTRONIC ARTS FOR FAMILIES
 Musée des ondes visit with Lorella Abenavoli
 Saturday February 6, 2015, 2pm-4pm | FREE!

Considering concrete examples of the exhibition at Musée des ondes, this guided tour will teach children and adults how we mastered the propagation of acoustic waves in the early twentieth century, and how such knowledge changed our lives and the outcome of the war. <http://moeb.ca>

ELECTRONIC ARTS FOR FAMILIES
 Electronic arts and textiles with Valérie Lamontagne
 Saturday February 20, 2pm-4pm | FREE!

The participants will build an electronic teddy bear!

IN SHORT...

As we approach the end of an eventful 2015, we still have a few fabulous activities to share!

ARTISTS IN RESIDENCE

XX artist-in-residence Daniela Ben-Bassat recently wrapped up her project TASKMASTER with a performance and artist talk on November 11.
